

The airing of "Stolen Honor" is only intended to inflict damage, not to inform. It is purely political propoganda, and, as such should not be given public forum without an equal opportunity given to the Kerry campaign. This is clearly wrong, and, as a concerned American, I strongly urge the FCC to either block its showing or grant equal time for rebuttal. Fair is fair!